

1380m2.

This is an aerial photograph of a residential neighborhood. A red-shaded area, representing a driveway or parking lot, runs diagonally from the top center towards the bottom right. A yellow text box with a red border contains the text '1380m2.', with a red arrow pointing from the box to the red-shaded area. The surrounding area includes several houses with grey roofs, green lawns, and trees. A parking lot with several cars is visible on the right side of the image.
